When in the bosom of human society, it becomes necessary, for the support of the power of the earth, the planets and equal station to which the laws of Nature and of Nations should declare the camps which compel them to the separation. We hold these truths with certain unalienable Rights, that among them are life, liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness — from the consent of the governed; — That whenever any form of government becomes destructive of Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers on such forms, as to be will declare that Government long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and under our jurisdiction, then to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. It is our duty to submit them under absolute Despotism; it is their right, it is their duty, it is their has the patient suffrage of these colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of world? He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for and passing Impostions, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; — for themselves for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would elongate to tyrants only; — He has called together legislative Bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, compliance with his measures. — He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for along time, after such Dissolutions; to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative Powers, con-ing in the mean time, exposed to all the dangers of Invasion from without, and convulsions with-ting the Law for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migration to Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary Powers and Payment of their salaries. — He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither us, in Times of peace, Standing Armies without the Consent of our Legislatures. — He has up-with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our Constitution, and unacknowledged by our our Trade, among us; — For pretending, by a mock Trial, from Parliament, to bind our Trade with all parts of the world; — For improving Taxes without our Consent; laws to be tried for pretended offences. — For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments. — For suspending our own Legislatures and He has abdicated Government here by declaring us out of the Protection and saving of the Law of our people. — He is at this time transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to complete the work hardly paralleled in the most barbarous age, and nearly unworthy the Head of a civilized nation. — He their Country, to borrow the mercenaries of their friends and Brothers, to fill their shores with their Bands; inhabitants of our Continents, the miserable Indian Slaves, whose known rule of warfare, is an unrelenting have Britain for Relief in the most humble terms. — Our repeated Petitions have been answered, by repeated us equal to the rule of a free people. — Nor have we been wanting in attention to our British Brethren able jurisdiction over us. — We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our consequence. — We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold We, therefore, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Continent, do in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare States, that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown; and that all political connection be-that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances States may or might do. — And for the support of the Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection and our sacred Honor?
